

BUCCANEER CLASSIC 2019

“INDICATIVE ITINERARY”

(MAY NEED TO CHANGE CLOSER TO EVENT)

- Skippers Meeting Thursday 18th April- You will be briefed on Competition Rules, Regulations, Fishing Bag Limits. Teams will be presented with Team goodies Bags & scoring sheets. Enjoy a few Beverages with a BBQ dinner and a chance to catch up with other teams.
- Convoy Friday 19th April (Good Friday) yes we are departing for the wonderful Buccaneer Archipelago on Good Friday. This convoy is follow the leader with safety stops to ensure everyone is travelling together (approx. 4hrs) Expecting Highlights of Hells Gates, Whirlpool Passage, Silica Beach, Croc Creek and Silver gull to Name a few. This is a social day – enjoy☺
- Friday Night - themed Party at the infinity pool on Cockatoo Island. All teams will be required to be on the island by 3pm (due to tides), airconed rooms are available for this evening on the island we are still yet to confirm whether you will need to BYO swags or if there will be beds available, this will be confirmed closer to the comp. Dinner is provided as part of your comp entry, BYO Drinks, theme-TBC).
- Saturday & Sunday = fishing comp (social raft ups encouraged during fishing hours as is the odd swim at croc creek or silver gull.
- Sat/Sun Camp Grounds – There are a few beaches recommended on our website or raft up with other teams in Dog Leg Creek or Camp Aboard your vessel with likeminded teams showing you safe anchorages for the nights away. Basic Villa accommodation is also available on Cockatoo island at a cost (bearing in mind you are limited to when you can get on and off the island due to tides) – this can be organised direct with Cockatoo island Inc via Dean Kemp – contact tournament coordinator for Dean’s contact details.
- Fishing Grounds – Yampi sound and surrounding islands and Creek systems are all on offer. Just try your luck.
- Memorial Breakfast/Presentation, Monday 22nd April – Today we remember a mate and award the much sort after category awards while enjoying a full cooked breakfast at Buccaneer Beach on Gibbons Island. We have a last minute catch up before we bid the Yampi Sound good Bye and Head for Derby in Convoy fashion (with a quick swim & rehydration stop at Silica Beach – just because we can).

(Option is to stay a little longer and enjoy the full beauty, sights and attractions that the Buccaneer Archipelago offers.)
